Dear Patriot,

Congress to our constituents, fellow Floridians, and all Americans, I have spent the last day recovering from my Saturday 5am marathon - the last one of the season. I truly enjoy being out with fellow South Floridians who know their health is a personal matter and also run to support causes for those out as fortunate as I in the essence of being an American!

I suppose that is why I reject the assertion of government dictating values of "shared sacrifice" and "fair share" as they are not in a position to be the arbiters of fairness. Americans believe in equality of opportunity and share the promise of a free enterprise society - state promoting a policy of equality of achievement.

That is why I was absolutely appalled at the horrific Fiscal Year 2012 budget proposal from President Barack Obama released last week. His budget raises more levies to produce and reduce the American dream of opportunity. What his budget does is endanger the promise that all of us want for our children and grandchildren -- Social Security.

The President's budget brings about $277 billion of new Federal Government spending over the next 10 years. It will increase our federal debt to $12.9 trillion by the end of Fiscal Year 2022. It means that we shall have added $2.4 trillion in new debt, resulting in debt payments alone of $5.7 trillion in Fiscal Year 2012-2022.

In the immediate term, President Obama is asking for $3.8 trillion in government spending for Fiscal Year 2012, $4.3 trillion in higher taxes, and $2.2 trillion in debt held by the American citizen. This
